

I am a parent of two students at Sirius Academy West and I am grateful for the opportunity to represent the voices and interests of all parents and carers within the school community.

I have experience supporting students with dietary requirements and understand the importance of inclusivity, wellbeing and accessibility in school life.

I am also passionate about promoting conservation and recycling projects and I enjoy encouraging environmentally responsible initiatives that benefit both students and the wider community.